

Signs in Context

Open ...	book letter door window bottle can of beer tin	Pass ...	tea baby pen building died parcel test	Like ...	jumper mother work food looks
Match ...	football fire curtain & chair	Grow ...	flowers children skill estate	Ring ...	fingers phone doorbell bell
Call ...	name cry phone	Up ...	wake up lock stand	Turn ...	tap person left / right up / arrive
Strike ...	pay fire hit	Off ...	bad food clothes holiday cancel	Bear ...	animal put up with it
Back ...	support reverse queue put back return body	Run ...	a mile nose tape -out of a bath	Tip ...	waiter cigarette away liquid
Left ...	to leave turn leave behind left over	Right ...	turn correct correct	Plane ...	aeroplane carpentry
Book ...	book (reading) book ticket reservation	Break ...	damage take a break	Examination...	exam check up
Cold ...	ill temperature	Hot ...	food/drink Body	Plaster ...	body (x2) walls/ceiling
White ...	colour race ill / faint	Party...	political celebrating

Signs in Context

Signs in context sentences

Match

My team won the football match
I need a match to light the fire
The curtains match the chair

Hear / Here

Speak up I can't hear you
Ask Mary to come here please

Where / wear

Have you been on holiday? Where did you go?
Are you going to the party? What will you wear?

Party

I'm not a member of any political party
There are 10 children coming to my son's birthday party

Ring

She has a lovely wedding ring
Let me know when you're coming. Give me a ring
Stonehenge is built in a ring
When you arrive, ring the doorbell twice
The Town Crier rang the bell

File

We waited outside the cinema in a single file
Filing is boring, but it helps us to find the file
The secretary filed her nails

There are many words in English which can have more than one meaning. Beware of this and check that the sign you use is in the CORRECT context.*